Class R weekly newsletter

Autumn 1

Dear Parents,

Reception class have been working and playing extremely hard for the last 6 weeks. We are all very proud of how they have settled into their first term. As you may have noticed, children are beginning to get tired and sometimes even tearful. Please be reassured that this is to be expected after all the amazing work they have done.

Just a reminder to bring your child's Welly Wednesday clothes in on their week as some children are missing out. Please see original letter sent out and the display on the class door. This week it is the following children's turn:

Harvey, Benjamin, James, Olivia, Freddie, Laila-Rose, Poppy M-B, Harry M, Sophie-Lee, Georgia, Oscar, Connie, Lacey, Isla.

Next week in school we are having a Design & Technology and Science themed week. If you have any plastic bottles of any sizes, please could you bring them in this week for our class project?

Please continue to email any evidence of your child's learning/interaction with school tasks/WOW moments at home to:

classr@coateslane.lancs.sch.uk

Kind Regards, Miss Palmer.
